Declaration

If you are applying to register your organisation as a charity using one of our model governing documents from our website, we ask you to certify below that any additions, deletions or other changes which you have made to the document are all clearly shown. We would regard changes as being “clearly shown” if what you have done falls into either or both of the following categories:

- You have filled in the blank spaces and deleted any inappropriate clauses where you are given these options in the instructions; and/or
- You have made additions or deletions where these options are not given in the instructions but you have made these changes clearly visible by, for example, using a different font, underlining, highlighting or by writing it in by hand.

Where the changes cannot be easily identified in these ways, it will take us longer to check through the document and this can slow down the process of registration. By signing the certificate, you are providing us with the assurance we need to enable us to process your application as efficiently as possible. We can still process your application even if you do not sign the certificate, but it may mean that we are not able to consider it as quickly as we would otherwise be able to.

Providing us with Information which you know or suspect to be false may be a criminal offence under section 11 of the Charities Act 1993.

Who should sign this certificate?

The trustees of the organisation applying for registration are responsible for the proper completion and content of the governing document they have adopted. It is the trustees who should sign this certificate. However, it is usual for the application to be made by a single person (often a trustee) who has been authorised by the full trustee body to do so. Where the trustees have authorised someone to act on their behalf, only that person should sign this certificate. The date of the meeting at which they were authorised to act will need to be inserted where indicated.
